

ASHTABULA TELEGRAPH--SUPPLEMENT.

A nephew of Stonewall Jackson married a niece of George B. McClellan, at Denver, the other day. What relation then, is George B. McClellan to Stonewall Jackson's new statue?

Vanderbilt's relation to his pastor, Dr. Deems, is a queer one. He feels partly like a father and partly like a son to him. Dr. Deems can only feel like a poor relation at the best.

The proposed increase of the tax on whisky, is neither more or less than an insult to Democracy, and if we are involved in another civil war, no doubt this proposition, if followed out, will have something to do with it. Such a step is of more than doubtful propriety, at this time. The animals had better not be stirred up any more until we get along with that Louisiana affair.
